Dear Gardena Residents,

Gardena grocery stores and retailers are doing their part to make sure that everyone – especially seniors and at-risk individuals can shop in a safe manner. Gardena has a large senior population that cannot go shopping because they are social distancing at home due to the COVID-19 restrictions, we are glad to see so many of our businesses step up and answer the call to help some of our most vulnerable residents.

We encourage seniors to continue following the Governors Order, however, should they not be able to do so, we have other resources available. Please contact (310) 217-9552 or seniors@cityofgardena.org

The following grocery stores and retailers are providing early shopping hours for Gardena Seniors:

- Albertsons: 1735 W Artesia Blvd – Tuesday & Thursday from 7 am – 9 am
  - Also open during these hours for: pregnant women, those with compromised immune systems and other at-risk populations.

- Green Farm Market: 2301 W. Rosecrans Ave – Every day 8 am – 8:30 am

We would like to remind all of our residents the COVID-19 outbreak is continuing to evolve, which means the senior hours and status of Gardena grocery store chains may be changing, too. Please call your nearest location before you head to the store to get the most up-to-date information.

Sincerely,
